UNBECOMING IN DE LOME.

Mr. Chandler (Republican), of New Hampshire, said that the matter com-plained of by Mr. Lodge was entirely unbecoming in a minister from Spain to unbecoming in a minister from Spain to the United States; that communication eight not to have been written. He asked whether, if Minister Bayard had addressed a communication to the London Times, eriticising remarks of Lord Salisbury, Mr.
Chamberlain, and others in the British Parliment, he would not think that a very improper proceeding.

Mr. Gray explained his view to be that the Scanish Minister had been guilty of a technical violation of diplomatic usage,
but that great allowance should be made for him. He (Mr. Gray) felt that maga technical violation of diplomatic usage, but that great allowance should be made for him. He (Mr. Gray) feit that magnanimity and forbearance on the part of the American Government towards of the that Cuba ought to be free, and who hoped that she would be free.

Mr. Frye (Republican) of Maine, called attention to an incident where a foreign minister pursued a course exactly the opposite of that which the Spanish Minister had pursued in this matter. It was a case where the Senate Committee on Commerce had before it a bill which he thought would affect German trade interests. As the German Government or lecopie had no agent or attorney to represent its interest before the committee, he had written a note to the German Ambasador informing him that a bill was pending before the committee affecting the interests of his country, and asking him whether he had anything to say about it. The German Minister promptly replied that he could not, with any propriety, address the committee, or any member of it, or any member of Congress, but that he would present some views to the Secretary of State, and the fact day those views were sent to the Secretary of State, and by him communicated to the Senate.

Mr. Hale did a secretary of Preess.

IMPORTANCE OF PRESS. Mr. Hale did pot agree in any cent of the Spanish Minister, who had done only what was natural under the circumstances. The entire tone of the Minister's communication was very certul and very nice and very deferential. The press, he went on, was now made the vehicle for representing to the public the views of the great men of the earth. Mr. Gladstone wrote communications for newspapers and magazines on both sides of the Atlantic touching great political questions, and everybody was giad to read them.

of the Atlantic touching great political questions, and everybody was giad to read them.

Mr. Lodge stated by what motive he was influenced in bringing the matter this morning to the attention of the Senate, and referred to the dismissal of Genet, the French Minister, by President Washington, who, he said, was not a jingo, and would not be taken to task today for his intemperate action. He also referred to the dismissal of the British Minister, Mr. Sackville West, during Mr. Cleveland's first administration, for writing a private letter, which had got into the newspapers.

At the close of Mr. Lodge's remarks the discussion was closed; but a new branch of the Cuban question was brought up by the Vice-President laying before the Senate the resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Hoar, postponing the conference report on the Cuban resolutions until the 6th of April, and directing the Committee on Foreign Relations to report to the Senate before that time the facts which, in its opinion, justify the passage of the resolutions, and the evidence thereof.

Mr. Hear's resolution went over until to-morrow, when he is to speak upon it at some length. The rest of the dag's session was given to the Delaware election case—Mr. Turple (Democrat), of Indiana, continuing, but not finishing, his speech against Mr. Dupont's right to the seat; and at 4:40 the Senate adjourned until to-morrow.

House of Representatives.

The annual fight in the House of Representatives against the appropriation of $196,000 for "special and necessary facilities over the trunk lines between Boston and New Orleans," carried in the bill for the past seventeen years, engaged the attention of the House to-day, in the course of the consideration of the post-office appropriation bill. It was precipitated by Mr. Loud (Republican), of California, in charge of the bill, who made the point of order that it was an appropriation for a purpose not at "berized by existing law. After some debate, the point of order was overruled by the Chair (Representative Payne (Republican), of New York), who followed several precedents in rulings to that effect, going back as far as the Forty-fourth Congress, Later, Mr. Loud moved to strike precedents in rulings to that effect, going back as far as the Forty-fourth Congress. Later, Mr. Loud moved to strike out the item, but this was defeated on a vote by telers—3 to 114. Previously, on a division, the vote was, ayes, 100; nocs, 25. So the item remains in the bill. Paragraphs providing appropriations for special facilities between Kansas City and Newton, Kan., and between Chicago and Omaha, were stricken out on points of order. of order.

The provisions of the bill, setting forth in detail the regulations under which street-car mall-service should be conducted, the prices to be paid, etc., were stricken out on a point of order made by Mr. Pickler (Republican), of South Dakota. This necessitated an increase of $10.000 in the item of car-fare and bicycle allowance to carriers.

allowance to carriers.

The House passed a bill making one year's continuous residence in a Territory a prerequisite to obtaining a divorce there. Besides that bill, only two or three miscellaneous matters were disposed of in the session-bills for the relief individuals. At 5.19 the House adjourned.

This morning the case of Senator Flood, charged with assaulting Senator Flanagan, will be called in the Police Court, be packed almost to suffocation by the curious public.

It will be remembered that last Thursday, while in the Senate Chamber, Mr. Flood attacked the Senator from Powhatan, and struck him twice with a walking-stick, one of the blows inflicting a painful scalp wound. The affair grew out of lil-feeling, which has existed between the two gentlemen for some time past, but was precipitated by some remarks which Mr. Flanagan made on the floor of the Senate, in regard to Mr. Flood to which the latter took exceptions.

A meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held yesterday at Mrs. Norman V. Randolph's residence. The special business of the meeting was to complete the arrangements for the address to be given on Tuesday, the 17th, by Mr. William L. Royall, for the benefit of the confederacy of the confed
